

Print double-faced. One per participant. Mark the [] with users behaviors/answers and feel free to write your observations too.

Usability Testing	Security Settings
User ID
Location
TB Version
Test Requirements	Start Tor Browser on security level: Medium

Interview Questions

Q1 A Looking at the browser interface, could you tell me if you can see which security level you are?

Yes No

- Look if they
 - Make an statement before looking the icon
 - Make an statement after looking the icon
 - Make an statement after clicking the icon and reading the doorhanger

Q1 B Is it the right level for you?

Yes No

Q2 Do you know how to change your security level?

Yes No

Q3 Could you change your security level?

Yes No

- See if they can do it by
 - clicking Advanced Security Settings at the doorhanger
 - going to General Preferences
 - other intent:

Q4 A Pick one of this task

- Read your favorite newspaper
- Go to see a video in youtube.com
- Search about "the state of internet freedom in India"

Q4 B What is happening?

- Everything is fine
- There is a problem: Rendering
- There is a problem: The page is not loading

- If there is a problem

Q4 C Do you think it is related with your security level?

- Yes No

Q5 Let's try changing your security settings, can you do it?

User will change security settings, as done before. Check if they upgrade or downgrade their security in order to make things work.

- Upgrading Security
- Downgrading Security

- Is the user reloading the page to see changes implemented?

- Yes No